

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JUNE 15, 1894.

NO. 31

BROOKHEAD, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—The Woodstock Lodge No. 639, of F. A. M., will celebrate St. John's day at Woodstock, Putnam county, on the 23d. A fine time is expected and everybody invited.

—Our school election at this place was set aside by the county superintendent on the grounds of opening the polls too late. They never commenced voting until after 2 o'clock, p. m.

—Mr. J. G. Frith, of our town, attended the democratic convention at Nicholasville, last week, and while he was gone from home his wife became the mother of a 10 lb boy. When Mr. Frith returned home, he named his boy, James Bennett McCreary.

—Mrs. L. H. Chirlock, of Berea, will deliver a lecture at Brookhead on Sunday, the 17th. She is a very intelligent lady and a fine speaker, and has a good subject, "The Evil Effects of Intoxicants," and we hope everybody in the community will come and hear her.

—Mr. C. H. Brown, the gentleman, who was operator at Rowland before the railroad company removed the office at that place, came up to our town last Thursday to hold down the wires at this place, for a few days, while Mr. Joe Farmer, our operator, and wife, spend a few days visiting their friends and relatives.

—The Hon. W. O. Bradley, who says he is going to be the next governor of Kentucky, while in Mt. Vernon a few days ago, said that by the time the next president would be nominated that there would be no democratic party. He said they were coming 10,000 strong to the republicans, and he opened the doors of his republican party and invited what few democrats there are in Rockcastle to join in with him. We think much of the colonel as a lawyer and as a man, but notwithstanding all our love for him, we must tell him that old Rockcastle has got a few old moss backed democrats that will never vote the republican ticket.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The union services will be held at the Christian church Sunday night by Rev. S. M. Logan.

—The Messenger says that the Pentecost meetings at Owensboro closed with 111 conversions. All but five joined the Baptist churches.

—In Louisville next Sunday, the pulpits of 11 Methodist churches will be occupied by women, notwithstanding the injunction in 1 Cor. 14:34.

—The new Presbyterian church at Henderson was dedicated Sunday. It was erected at a cost of $70,000, and an immense crowd witnessed the dedication ceremonies.

—Rev. Thomas Bottomley is the oldest preacher in Kentucky. He was born in England, is 90 years old and has been preaching 72. He is now located at Hopkinsville and is hale and hearty. He was a Methodist circuit rider for 50 years.

—During the last 11 months, Rev. John Bell Gibson has held five protracted meetings in as many towns with a total of 200 additions to the churches. This is in addition to his regular pastoral work and is a record both to be proud of and not easily beaten.

—It is to be hoped that every one present at the Baptist church next Sunday morning will vote unanimously that the organ be moved to and remain in the middle of the church. After his faithful service for nearly a quarter of a century, many do not deem the instrument a worthy subject for further discussion. J. F. WATKINS.

—Grains of wheat found in Egyptian mummy cases have been known to germinate after lying dormant for 3,000 years. The plant they produced is almost identical with the wheat grown in Egypt at the present time.

—Joseph K. Lockett, of Henderson, has made a wager that he can eat seven gallons of popcorn between the hours of 6 a. m. and 6 p. m. It is hoped that it will kill him.

—During the 50 years between 1790 and 1840, 280 vessels of the British navy were struck by lightning, causing a loss of $50,000 and killing or injuring 350 men.

—The 12th annual meeting of the Sunday-School Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian church in Kentucky will be held at Frankfort from June 19 to 21.

—On June 20 the Chesapeake and Ohio will run a special limited excursion from Louisville to Old Point Comfort, placing the round-trip fare at $15.

—Dr. Caldwell says that there are but three known "tobacco takers"—the African goat, the hideous tobacco worm and man.

—The prohibitionists of Kansas have nominated a full State ticket, with I. O. Pickering at its head for governor.

I have two little grand children who are teething this hot summer weather and are troubled with bowel complaint. I give them Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it acts like a charm. I earnestly recommend it for children with bowel troubles. I was myself taken with a severe attack of bloody flux, with cramps and pains in my stomach, one-third of a bottle of this remedy cured me. Within 24 hours I was out of bed and doing my house work. Mrs. W. L. Duncan, Boonville, Hancock Co., Tenn. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford.

MIDDLEBURG, CASEY COUNTY.

—Dr. I. S. Wesley is attending the bedside of W. L. Peairs at Kingsville. —Patsy Lester, whose name was dropped from the pension roll some five years ago, has been restored and has lately drawn $750 with a continuance of $12.50 per month.

—Rev. H. M. Shouse has organized a Sunday-school at the school house just above town, with about 50 pupils. His S. seems to be very zealous along that line and his congregation at the Baptist church is much pleased with him as pastor.

—Mrs. Myra Lucas, wife of W. E. Lucas, departed this life on the 7th, after an illness of nearly 12 months. She was an excellent woman, a kind mother and devoted wife. Her remains were interred in the Sims burying ground Friday, after prayer by Rev. F. Grider and an appropriate talk by her pastor, Rev. H. M. Shouse.

—After telling of the shootings and killings at and near Yosemite, which we gave substantially in another column, our correspondent says of A. O. Wink.

It is reported that he figured in several killings, though it is not known except in the case of one Bill Miller, whom he killed some ten years ago on the railroad two miles above Grove. He is a native of Arkansas, but came here from Vanceburg, this State, about 14 years ago and worked as foreman for the Green River Lumber Co. He was much liked by those with whom he did business, and was well qualified for business. The writer has frequently been at his house and a kinder or more friendly man it has never been our lot to meet. Though with all this, he was said to be a very dangerous man when aroused. As for Peairs, should he recover, as is likely, he ought to look at his past life, which if reports are true, has been anything but spotless, and at the homes he has in a measure been the means of wrecking, and if possible atone for the sins he has committed. Fitchman has heretofore been a very peaceable man and he evidently thought he was in imminent danger, or he would never have fired the fatal shot, though he is pretty severely censured. Watkins leaves a wife and four bright children, whom he seemed to idolize. It is sad to think of the end to which he has come.

HUSTONVILLE.

—The normal school at the college opened Monday with a fair attendance. —Miss Beulah VanArsdale left last week for Nashville where she will visit relatives this summer.

—The thermometer has run the bicycles in the shade. The heat in Hustonville is crowding the 100° mark, how is it in Stanford?

—Miss Helen Taylor spent from Friday until Sunday with Miss Bessie Moore near Mt. Salem. M. F. North has returned from a trip to Eastern Kentucky.

—The Beech Grove Debating Society will meet Friday night, 23d, and decide who is the mother of the chicken, the hen that laid the egg or the one that hatched it?

—Your correspondent had a few of his young friends to spend the day with him last week. He most cordially asks them to come again as he surely enjoys the presence of young people.

—We notice the Stanford boys in our midst quite often. We like to see the boys come up every Sunday. We have some "mighty" sweet girls here, and so have they at home, so we will swap towns on Sundays.

—Will Dinwiddie made two trips to Yosemite last week in the interest of his employer. Mr. E. B. Powell is visiting in Lancaster. Wonder what takes him there? Hustonville looks quite lone some now. The schools girls all have gone, but some beauty yet remains there. Mr. W. C. Donaldson left Monday for his home near Shelbyville. Miss Lillian Shauman has been visiting Miss Maggie McKinney at Mt. Salem.

—Last Saturday night while returning from Mr. Dave Allen's, Miss Bessie Moore and a young lady who was visiting her and Mr. Ed Powell were thrown from a buggy by its upsetting and hurt Miss Moore very badly. She was thrown out on her face bruising it from her left eye to the chin, making a painful wound. She was thought to be seriously hurt for a while. After her fright wore off to some extent, she said she couldn't work her jaws, well, this frightened her again. That would frighten any woman though, for if they couldn't work their jaws they would most surely die. Miss Moore is of rare beauty and we sincerely hope the marks of that dangerous fall will not be left on her fair features.

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. If you have never used this great Cough Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at A. R. Penny's drug store. Large bottles 50c and $1.

—Coal oil is selling at four cents per gallon in Chicago.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—There is a Hebrew tradition that Eve survived Adam, and was, therefore, the first widow.

—Miss Jennie Mayo, a Modocan, Vt., belle has created a sensation by secretly marrying a negro porter, but as there is no law against miscegenation there her folks can do nothing.

—Andy Sharpe, of Riceville, this State, is charged with poisoning his bride of four months. He gave her a dose of medicine and she died a few moments afterwards. A mob is hunting the assassin.

—Mrs. Mary Standford Keller, of Lancaster, daughter of the late Dr. Standford, will institute suit for divorce against her husband, Murray Keller, alleging abandonment. They were married 18 years ago.

—Benjamin F. Cox, a prominent young man of Boston, committed suicide because Laura Wheeler, whom he loved, married another man. And yet there are nearly 100,000 more women than men in Massachusetts.

—W. A. McKinney, a prosperous farmer of the McKinney section, and Mrs. Laura Montgomery, sister of Jailer Sam M. Owens, were married yesterday afternoon at Mr. Hugh Logan's in Hustonville. The bride is an excellent lady and will make a welcome worthy of the name. We extend congratulations.

HUBBLE.

—Some parties have been delivering their old wheat in Lancaster at 53c.

—Mr. Bryon, of London, Ohio, is visiting at George Enbanks' this week.

—Look out for rabid dogs in this community, as some have had this and died.

—Miss Lulu Owsley will teach for us again this Fall and the district is well pleased with the selection.

—But few people attended the show on the 8th at Danville, showing what close money matters we have in this community.

—Wm. Hubble is having his house repaired. Some talk of repainting the church here and if it is done it will not be before it needs it.

—Robanks Bros. let the contract to build their house to Barker & Yeager at $2,250, everything delivered on the ground and board the hands while at the job.

—Mr. F. G. Nannellay has engaged to strip James Robinson's grass seed for three-fourths of the seed. He turns over his contract to another party for a nice profit.

—Greenberry Bright, Jr., went to see his best girl, near Richmond, Friday, and came home Sunday night; got up about daylight Monday and has been cutting barley and plowing corn all the week.

—J. J. Walker is now at Clear Creek Springs, near Pineville, for his health. Here is fresh and better feelings to him, besides a good time. Joe Ab Rigney, of Caser, is up with a lot of cattle, trying the market.

—Will Robinson has gone to Middleboro to take a position as clerk in the Mingo Coal Mines. We wish him success, as he is an excellent young man. G. P. Bright is the first to have corn in tassel. We expect the silk by the middle of June. John Bright, assisted by A. J. Rice, surveyed the Joe Swope farm here Tuesday. G. A. Swinebroad is building a new barn.

—What a splendid "spike team" Anti McGarvey and Jaby Jones are making in this Congressional race. A jackass and a cow yoked together never pulled a Buncombe county, North Carolina plow more gracefully.—Senator Hodges in Lexington Observer.

—Pensioners seldom die and none gives up his stipend. David McCoy, a pensioner of the war of 1812, who was born in Burke county, N. C., has just celebrated his 100th birthday at San Bernardino, Cal.

—Germans are most prone to suicide the Irish and negroes rarely resort to self-destruction.

Four Big Successes.

Having the needed merit to more than make good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale. Dr. King's New Discovery, for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, each bottle guaranteed. Electric Bitters, the great remedy for Liver Stomach and Kidney. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, and Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are a perfect pill. All these remedies are guaranteed to do just what is claimed for them and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them. Sold at A. R. Penny's Drug Store.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Three more buildings were begun yesterday.

—James Taylor died the first of this week, aged 70.

—The Signal will shortly erect a new brick building for office purposes.

—Our people were well pleased with the preaching of Rev. Joe Severance.

—A large delegation from this place will attend the Masonic picnic at Woodstock, St. John's day.

—Mrs. DeFord, the mother of Mrs. Judge Collier of this place, died at Level Green, Tuesday, the 12th.

—The Ladies Aid Society has been instrumental in beautifying the interior of the Christian church. The ladies work who so unselfishly for the welfare of the public, should receive the hearty co-operation of all in their noble work.

—Horses!—That is the need of the town. A number of good people have been here during the past two weeks inquiring for houses to rent. There is not a vacant house in town and in some instances two and three families are living in the same building.

—Judge McClure is quite sick. Misses Lena McClure and Mary Ferguson have returned from Louisville. Mr. M. J. Miller is in Lancaster. Prof. Dickerson will teach our public school. Miss Lucille Joplin has returned from a visit to Paris.

—Among the volunteer wood cutters, hewers, etc., who assisted in putting up the new building for the stove mill, we noticed a brakeman, a section foreman, a conductor, an engineer, telegraph operator, merchant, blacksmith, farmer, butcher, stone cutter—in fact, nearly every trade and calling was represented.

—The Sunday-School convention, which was held at the court-house, Saturday, June 9th, was a success, although the regular conductor, Mr. Boswell was unavoidably absent. Mr. W. J. Sparks, president, and Mrs. Cleo Brown, secretary and treasurer, were on duty. A number of visitors from Sunday-Schools in the county evinced a growing interest in this noble work, which was begun by Robert Raikes, of England, over 100 years ago.

—Monday morning our citizens turned out in gangs for the woods, cutting timber to erect a new building for Walters & Co., who lost their stove mill by fire. The saw mills each gave a day's sawing, and by the time this matter is set in type a new building will have been erected where the fire occurred, without cost to the proprietors. The machinery, which was not badly damaged, is being repaired and some new stuff is now on the road and it will be but a short time till everything will be in shape for work at the mill.

—Three fires occurred near this place within 24 hours. Saturday night at 12:30 the stove mill of Walters & Co., burned to the ground, entailing a loss of $2,000. The fire originated in some saw dust or shavings. A negro, who was asleep under the boiler only awoke when a portion of the roof fell on him. He escaped in a singed condition. The same night the distillery of D. P. Bethurum, three miles south of town went up in smoke. Loss $1,000. On Sunday night the barn and corn crib of Moses Payne was destroyed by fire. Incendiary. No insurance on any of these losses.

—Mr. Otho Sweeney, of Indian Territory, is visiting relatives in this county. Mrs. Will Henderson and Miss Bessie McClure attended the wedding of Hensley Brown at Parksville last week. Misses Sannie Kennedy and Gertrude Weber were appointed delegates to attend the State Sunday-School convention at Russellville. Miss Nellie Spradlin celebrated her fourth birthday by entertaining her young friends from 2 to 4 o'clock, last Tuesday. Mrs. John McKenzie is very ill. Messrs. Hensel & Sigman were selected by Superintendent Baker as his examiners. Mr. and Mrs. Willis Griffin have just recovered from a serious attack of measles. Miss Fannie McFerran, of Pine Hill, visited relatives here this week.

—The national officers of the United Mine Workers have issued a circular dwelling upon the conferences with the operators and the compromise secured. They say that they have gained much, and advise the miners to resume work next Monday.

ASHLAND, Wis.—The famous retreat in northern Wisconsin located on the Wisconsin Central line at the head of the Chequamegon Bay is a most desirable spot for one to spend a summer outing, surrounded as it is by the beautiful Apostle Islands. Little need be said of its scenic beauty and health giving qualities. This place should not be overlooked by those figuring on a resort for their next summer's vacation. The tourist will find excellent fishing and boating at this point, and good hotel accommodations at very reasonable rates. For further particulars, maps, time tables, and guide books apply to Jas. C. Pond, Genl. Pass. Agt., Milwaukee, Wis.

"Many of the citizens of Painesville, Ind., are never without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house," says Jacob Brown, the leading merchant of the place. This Remedy has proven of so much value for colds, croup and whooping cough in children, that few mothers who know its worth are willing to be without it. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford.

MISS SADIE LILLARD arrived from Stonewall Jackson Institute, Abingdon, Va., Tuesday. Her father, Mr. R. W. Lillard, met her at Big Stone Gap.

MISS LUCY AND MATTIE ALCOHN have returned from Oxford, O., College to their father, Dr. Ed. Alcorn's, Hustonville, the former with a well earned diploma.

J. W. BRIGHT, of the Hubble section, has engaged with the Ninth Street Tobacco Warehouse Co., of Louisville, and will solicit for it in this and adjoining counties.

There was much regret at the hop over the absence of Misses Maggie and Mattie Owsley, who were kept at home by sickness, of a not very serious nature we are, however, glad to say.

Mrs. MARY L. WITHERS, a very handsome widow, has begun a visit to her cousin, Mr. W. W. WITHERS. She is connected with the Boston newspapers and is a very accomplished writer.

MR. AND Mrs. J. CAMERON and Misses Mary and Margaret Walker returned from Eureka Springs, Ark., Tuesday, all improved in health. Mr. Hays thinks his winter outing helped his cough very much.

The charming and talented Mrs. James I. McKinney, "Katydid," and her beautiful friend, Mrs. Thornton, of Montgomery, Ala., returned home yesterday much improved in health by a visit to Crab Orchard. Miss Katie Slaughter accompanied Mrs. McKinney.

CITY AND VICINITY.

The Courier-Journal meanly insinuates that Mr. Cleveland wanted to send "Happy Jack" Miller as far off as possible.

The contract for the Danville water works was let to H. DeLong & Co., of Lexington, who will do all the work and furnish the necessary machinery, for $60,000.

While being milked the other night a cow belonging to Henry James, of the East End, coughed up a bag containing a pair of stockings, a bunch of keys and a lot of small nails.

J. H. Baker, who is claimed as husband by two women, and who was defended by W. S. Burch at the examining trial, failed to appear and Mr. Burch, who went his bail, may have to pony up.

While Jess and Luke, little sons of T. L. Carpenter, were playing on a lumber pile, it fell with them, bruising Luke considerably and cutting Jess' leg severely and making a surgeon's attention necessary.

W. H. SHANKS, who went down to the commencement at Centre College and took in the game between the Centres and the Louisville Athletics, tells us that the former won 6 to 2.

A CLOTHING drummer from Cincinnati came over from Lancaster Wednesday with 1,700 pounds of express baggage, and Fish and Holderman had to get a move on themselves for once.

The skin of one of Mr. J. E. Bruce's lambs was found on his place the other day. He had missed several of his lambs before that, but did not know he was being robbed of them in that style.

DURING the Summer months I will have a class in vocal and instrumental music. Parties desiring either will please give me a call. Theory and sight reading free. Mrs. Margaret A. Portman.

The store of J. H. Collier at Crab Orchard was broken into Wednesday night and goods to the value of $25 or more stolen. The rascals, whose identity is unknown, entered through a window.

Two governors and one ex-governor occupied the stand at the Centre College commencement, all graduates of the Institution—Govs. Brown, of Kentucky; Matthews, of Indiana, and last and greatest of all, J. Proctor Knott.

A DISPATCH from Middleboro says that Missouri capitalists are negotiating with B. G. Pennington for the purchase of his zinc mines in Claiborne county, Tenn. These are said to be the finest mines of the kind in the country.

THE Enbanks Bros., Crit and Mac, have contracted with Barker & Yeager, of Danville, for a dwelling on the site of the one recently burned. It will be two stories high, contain eight rooms and cost, when completed, about $5,000.

HENRY MCCORMACK, a negro, was tried before Squire Smiley in the West End on the charge of house-breaking and sent on to circuit court. He was placed in Constable Joe Shannon's hands to deliver to the jailer, but soon gave the officer the slip and left for parts unknown.

THE weather continues excessively warm, the mercury reaching up in the 90s in the middle of the day. Farmers already begin to complain that they need rain, but the weather service does not promise it. "Fair continued warmer. Slightly cooler Friday night," is the way yesterday's dispatch read.

STRUCK DUMB.—A man was found wandering around town yesterday in an aimless manner and upon inquiry it was found that he had been struck dumb. He had been in Banks', the jeweler, and the low prices on watches, jewelry, etc., so paralyzed him that he was unable to talk. This is not an advertisement, but it simply shows what low prices will do.

WANTED.—A good public school anywhere in Kentucky. I have a first class certificate, under which I can teach in any school in the State. I have taught for 10 years and refer to ex-trustees and patrons in Stanford, Rowland, Lancaster, Mt. Vernon, Brights, White Oak, &c., in Lincoln and Garrard counties. Address M. D. Hughes, Lancaster, Ky. 2t.

ELOPMENT.—Mr. J. D. Holderman, better known as "Debo," took the train here yesterday morning with pretty Miss Delia Potter, aged 15, and fled with her to Jellico, where he has doubtless ere this made her his wife. Mr. Holderman is lineman for the Electric Light Co. and an industrious, clever man. He is a widower with one child, his first wife having been Miss Fannie Straub.

The program for the Caledonian Literary Society meeting at the court-house to-morrow night, 16th, is as follows: Address by the president, R. M. Newland; paper by Thomas Miller Owsley; solo Miss Alice Holmes; declamation, Black Horse and Rider, Wm. Hocker; music, Messrs. Fish and Mudd; declamation, Spartacus to the Gladiators, Ashby Warren; music, Fish and Mudd; debate, "Resolved that a Chicken can Roost with more comfort on a Round Pole than on a Square Pole," to be affirmed by J. A. Beasley, W. H. Shanks and W. S. Burch and negatived by Jack Beasley, Logan Hughes and S. W. Menefee; music, Fish and Mudd. The society having disbanded at Turnersville, it will hereafter meet at Stanford.

THE MERRY BACHELORS' HOP.

The Seventeenth Annual Hop given by the Merry Bachelors of Stanford Wednesday night was a shining and courtship success. Walton's Opera House was ablaze with beauty, the brightness of whose eyes dimmed the electric lights and made the scene one never to be forgotten. The young gentlemen were on their good behavior, not a single thing occurring to mar the happiness of the occasion. Spectators were out in force and seemed heartily to enjoy the graceful movements to music that was simply grand. Saxton's orchestra furnished it and every one said he never danced to better. Mr. Saxton is as clever too as he is gifted in producing a harmony of sweet sounds and never failed to respond willingly to an encore or refused to grant a request. The boys fell in love with him and his band and say that hereafter it is Saxton or nobody. An elegant lunch was served at 1 o'clock at the St. Asaph Hotel, whose dining room had been beautifully decorated with vines and flowers. It was 4:30 before the last couple took a reluctant leave of the happy scene, feeling sad to think that 'twas bright, 'twas heavenly, but 'tis past. The young ladies who graced the occasion are given below, with a description of their costumes:

Miss Isabel Owsley, Hubble, pink Swiss; flowers.

Miss Maggie Miller, Lancaster, pink silk; diamonds.

Miss Bessie Richards, Junction City, cream silk; pearls.

Miss Ida Dodson, Milton, N. C., white organdie; diamonds.

Miss Evelyn Buchanan, Crab Orchard white lace; natural flowers.

Mrs. Dolph Rice, Lancaster, white Swiss, lace trimmings; gold.

Miss Helen Hill, Memphis, yellow silk, lace trimmings; diamonds.

Miss Maggie Buchanan, Crab Orchard, white silk, lace overdress; pearls.

Mrs. Mary L. Withers, Cincinnati, Nile green silk, lace trimmings; diamonds.

AL WATKINS KILLED.—In our last issue we chronicled the fact of the shooting of Conductor W. L. Peairs at Yosemite by Al Watkins, after most treacherous conduct on his part. We are now called upon to chronicle Mr. Watkins' demise. He was removed Tuesday morning by Frank Flinchum, a section boss on the Green River Railroad, with a double barrel shot gun loaded with buck-shot or other leaden missiles. Watkins had had his examining trial at Liberty the day before for shooting Peairs and had given the $1,000 bond required of him. At the trial he sent Flinchum word to meet him at a certain place, as he wanted to talk with him. Flinchum returned the information that he didn't care to see him, but if Watkins was especially anxious to interview him, he knew where he lived. Tuesday morning he called at Flinchum's early, but he declined to see him, and when he called the second time, he let him have the contents of his gun, killing him instantly. He had sent Flinchum word that he intended to kill him, and as Flinchum knew that he had killed two men and tried to kill a third, he was satisfied that he meant business, so he took no chances. Watkins claimed that Flinchum had been too intimate with his wife, a charge that had been laid at the doors of a number of men, against all of whom Watkins had sworn vengeance, and who will now breathe easier since his ability to carry out his threat has been materially abridged, not to say entirely destroyed.

CIRCUIT COURT.—James Evans, the negro who stole E. P. Woods' mare and sold her in Washington county, for $5.50, plead guilty and was given four years. It is told that Hon. W. H. Miller, who defended him, broke down in his speech and could not proceed on account of his emotion. The negro's people had belonged to Mr. Miller's family and he felt much interest in him. The scene cut a year or two off the verdict. Wm. Stampfer, plead a former conviction, for the same offense and was acquitted of carrying concealed weapons. James McGill, a raggy, dirty, negro boy from Milledgeville, was up for breach of the peace, but no witnesses appearing, the court discharged him. John Traylor for maliciously cutting his brother, Alex Traylor, was fined $75 and costs. The Commonwealth made out a case sufficient to send the defendant to the penitentiary, but his witnesses showed that he was almost as much sinned against as sinning, and many thought he ought not to have been fined at all.

The grand jury, after five days' effort, adjourned Wednesday, having found only nine indictments, the smallest number in the recollection of any court official. They are as follows: 1. F. Steele, bribing voter; J. H. Baker, bigamy; Henry McCormack, petit larceny, 2 cases; J. G. Weatherford and Cale Brown, selling liquor on Sunday; Frank Hogue, illegal voting; Jim Evans, horse stealing, since convicted, and Trice and Gliven, house breaking, acquitted. Zed Bright and Sheridan Simpson, for stealing corn from J. A. & S. T. Harris. Bright dismissed by Commonwealth on account of age and Simpson given 30 days. Caleb Bright, trespass, acquitted. Arthur McGinnis fined $10 for shooting at W. R. Akin. Jury hung last court in this case. Charles Critchfield, malicious cutting, released on his own recognizance.

A good deal of work has been done so far. All of the important criminal cases have been tried, leaving no murder case on the docket, for a rarity. A considerable amount of civil business has also been done and Judge Sautley says he will clear the docket or light it out on the present line all Summer.

The suit of Gillispie vs. Bastin & Colter for $5,000 damages for cutting the timber off his land, occupied the court all day yesterday. There were a dozen lawyers in the case and they all had to speak.

Mr. J. R. WARREN has intelligence from T. S. Riggs, at Providence, Mo., that his brother, Silas Riggs, and Mr. Warren's nephew, had died very suddenly. He was a man of considerable means, and leaves a wife and three children.
